On Thursday, April 4, 2019, at 5:45 pm, San Bruno Police Officers responded to the report of a vehicle burglary that had just occurred in the parking lot of the Tanforan Mall, located at 1150 El Camino Real. Arriving officers located the suspect vehicle described as a silver 2018 Chevrolet Malibu and attempted to make a traffic stop. The driver of the vehicle refused to stop and drove through a busy intersection against a red light and nearly collided with a motorcyclist. Given the unsafe conditions, officers did not pursue the vehicle.

On Friday, April 5, 2019, the Malibu was located in San Francisco and 29 year old Hayward resident Vailolo Ieremia was identified as the driver of the Malibu who fled from the police. She was arrested for burglary, conspiracy and using a vehicle to evade arrest in a reckless manner. She was booked in the San Mateo County Jail.

This investigation is on-going. Anyone with any information related to this crime is urged to contact the San Bruno Police Department at (650) 616-7100 or by email: sbpd@sanbruno.ca.gov. Information can be left anonymously.
